AUSIT Chairman Ms. Sarina PHAN Lectures at AITI

Upon the invitation of AITI, AUSIT Chairman Ms. Sarina PHAN came to AITI on 4th October, 2008 to give a seminar entitled 'A Career in Translating and Interpreting-Getting Started'.

Ms. PHAN started with a brief yet systematic review of the current situation and the prospect of the industry of translating and interpreting both in Australia and worldwide. She also made detailed analyses of employment issue, which is the greatest concern of the students. In the lecture, Ms. PHAN made valuable and pertinent suggestions as to how to kick start a career in this field and how to stand out amidst intense competition.

Ms. PHAN noted that everyone must strive to develop his own advantage in order to secure a decent salary. For instance, at the English-Chinese translation market, there is considerable demand for those proficient in dialects. The ability to provide such services will obviously be a bonus and competitive advantage for seeking employment. Ms. PHAN also highlighted the importance of being able to manipulate the commonly used software in the translating and interpreting industry.

Prior to concluding the seminar, Ms. PHAN answered many questions from students. The students showed great interest in the seminar and responded warmly.

“我放弃了国内读了一年的重点大学本科学位前来澳大利亚翻译学院学习翻译课程，因为我认为国外的环境能为我的发展提供更广阔的空间，而且澳洲对翻译人员的需求让我看到了翻译行业极具潜力的发展前景。在 AITI 学习的一年多时间里，我很庆幸自己当初的选择。AITI 的确是个好学校，这里的老师有着丰富的教学和工作经验，让我受益匪浅。同学们互帮互助，让我不但在融合的学习氛围中得到了宝贵的翻译知识，而且结识了志同道合的好朋友。我很高兴能够成为 AITI 的一员，在老师的帮助以及自己的努力下，我已经获得了 NAATI 高级笔译文凭证书，目前正在攻读高级口译课程。”

Bo LI

Bo LI : AITI 2007 Two-Year Program of Translating and Interpreting Studies student. At the end of 2007, she has successfully acquired the Advanced Diploma of Translation and NAATI Level 3 Certificate. Currently, she is undertaking the Advanced Diploma of Interpreting courses.

I quit from my undergraduate degree course in a key university in China to undertake the translation courses at AITI. This is because I believe that I will have more room for development in the overseas environment. Also, the demand for translators and interpreters in Australia made me realise the potentially bright prospect in this industry. Over the year of study at AITI, I have realised I made the right decision. AITI is a good institution, where the teachers have extensive teaching and industry experience. I benefited a lot. The students help each other. Apart from learning translation knowledge in this friendly environment, I also made many good friends sharing the same interests and aspirations. I am happy I can be part of AITI. With the help of the teachers plus my own efforts, I have got my Advanced Diploma in Translating. Now I am doing the Advanced Diploma of Interpreting.’
